FINANCIAL GRANT / SCHOLARSHIP DESCRIPTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

Phrear School of Theology offers financial aid in the form of student grants that are funded through the institution and the efforts of friends, partners, ministries and the congregations of Full Gospel Assemblies. No state or federal government financial aid programs are available. Financial Aid applications may be obtained through the Academic Office. The following PST student tuition grants are available.

PST Pastoral Grant. Thirty Percent. (30%)

Pastors of local congregations may apply for a student tuition grant of 30%. It is required that all PST Pastoral Grant candidates be fulfilling the position of pastor of a local congregation, holding regular worship services. Pastoral Grant applications will be required to be supported by ministerial references.

PST Second Generation Grant. Twenty-Five Percent. (25%)

Children of pastors of local congregations may apply for a student tuition grant of 25%. It is required that all PST Second Generation Grant candidates be the child of an active pastor of a local congregation, holding regular worship services. Second Generation Grant applications will be required to be supported by ministerial references.

PST Timothy Grant. Twenty Percent. (20%)

Applicants from within Full Gospel Assemblies affiliate or partner congregations may apply for a student tuition grant of 20%. It is required that all PST Timothy Grant candidates be recommended by an active pastor or minister of a local FGA affiliate or partner congregation. Timothy Grant applications will be required to be supported by pastoral references.

PST Discipleship Grant. Fifteen Percent. (15%)

Students demonstrating that they are answering the call to ministry with further preparation in study of the word of God may apply for the PST student tuition Discipleship Grant of 15%. Discipleship Grant applications will be required to be supported by a call and vision statement describing the inner call of God and the vision in fulfillment of the call.

PST Economic Grant. Sliding Scale

Students experiencing financial hardship or constraint may apply for the PST student tuition Economic Grant. Economic Grants are based on confirmed household / family income level and granted on a sliding scale to a maximum of 30% of student tuition.
